Well-crafted activities with equal weightage for Values, skill and knowledge are essential for effective learning, team building, personal development, and various professional and social settings.

These activities are designed with specific objectives in mind, ensuring that our students engage meaningfully and derive maximum benefit.

A new dawn – A new morn - Welcoming the teachers

The new beginning of the fresh academic year commenced with the warm reception of our facilitators who were gratified with roses and illuminating love.

A new Inception - Welcoming our Principal

The light of enlightenment flickering from the divine lamp showcased the anointed spirit of our new revered Principal, Dr. Veda Bysani, who was given a convivial welcome by the staff.

Welcoming the Students - the blooming buds

The ever-vibrant spirits and the wobbling hearts of our beloved students were filled with mirth and hilarity when they were well received by their esteemed teachers on the opening day with fairy-looking hand-crafted cards, signifying their pleasurable return.

Be the mass leaders of your generation - Introduction of Public speaking

In order to imbibe absolute confidence in the field of oration including the formation of sequential thought process and the proper build-up of body language, our school has brought into practice the concept of public speaking among the students so that they could become intellectually competent speakers in the future.

Journey of a Notice board - An Insightful Odyssey

The school has undergone a resurgence in its imposing cogitation by transforming the notice boards into insightful and interactive galleries to make our students morally upright, psychologically apt and socially independent respectively.

Know your Appollo family - Parent orientation program

The Parent Orientation Program (POP) serves as a platform for the teachers and the parents to know each other and share their insights. It was a pleasure for our ANPS family to welcome the parents from Playgroup to Grade 10, provide information about the new academic year and establish a collaborative relationship between the school and the families. Effective communication coupled with partnership between parents and facilitators served as a key towards a supportive and enriching environment for students.

Make It Eden- Hortico Haven

The core values of our school have been brought to evergreen life through the recent inauguration of “Hortico Haven”. State of the art polyhouse equipped with drip irrigation system, a hydroponics setup with several plants growing in them such as Bobchai, Celery and lettuce among many others, has become a centre of learning to students of all grades. This environment day, our school's initiative to start “Hortico Haven” aims to help our pupils grow alongside Mother Nature, inculcating Her invaluable lessons into our own lives. The seeds of progress and prosperity were sown by the dignitaries.

A new perspective for mind and body development - Chess and Kabaddi

Our vision is to make Appollo National Public School the Chess Capital of Bengaluru. By introducing Chess into the curriculum, our school aims to teach each and every child the magnetic and challenging art of chess, to promote critical values such as decision making, alertness, strategic planning and sheer determination in the minds of our students. By introducing the chess program from grades 1 to 10, we aim to train our students in critical thinking from a very young age.

The newly started kabaddi program in our school teaches our students about core values and invaluable skills such as strength, will power, determination and focus. We at Appollo National Public School, aim to promote the interests and talents of our students as well as hone their skills to inculcate them into their lives.
