A father is the one who maintains strict discipline Among the family members and is looked upon with respect by everyone. He shows the ~~write~~ right Path to his children and motivates them to achieve the goals of their lives through Proper Education.

A father is the one who stands rock solid beside his family and Protects them from the evils of society. He acts as the root of his family and binds each members with love and Respect. I love him and my love keeps multiplying every day.

We consider all our fathers as our first superheroes who teaches us about good and evil. For every person, the father is the symbol of strength for entire family. Children show their love and respect for their fathers by giving them gifts and cards.

But we should remember to thank our father everyday of the year. We should be grateful for his sacrifices in order for ~~us~~ our dreams to come true. We should try to make everyday special for him.
