Book Fair

A Book fair was organized in our school last week. There were so many types of books for sale, such as books on literature, novels, philosophy, comics and educational books. The stalls were arranged in rows. It was very attractive and well decorated. I was so excited to see all the books which I like to read. Reading boosts our knowledge and it is an important part of our education. I love to read books and to motivate others to read. I would like to mention a famous saying "A room without a book is like a body without its soul."

SAVE TREES

Trees are the most beautiful creatures in nature and need to be saved. With their lush green leaves, they provide natural scenery and a pleasant view to the human eyes. But, the current environmental pollution due to human activities has led to the destruction of trees causing a huge scale of deforestation. It's high time that we understand the importance of trees and save trees.

Trees should be saved as they provide us with food to live. Trees and deep forests are the sinks of carbon dioxide- a greenhouse gas and the producers of oxygen without which life on earth can't sustain. Trees give us shelter. Most of our home décor and furniture are made of tree barks. Trees are also a source of fuel. Trees give us medicine. Trees give us rubber, clothes and many more which the humans are dependent on.

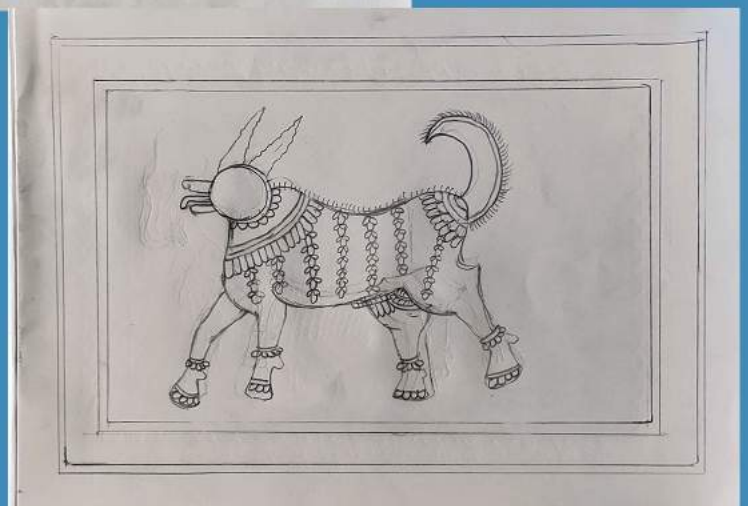

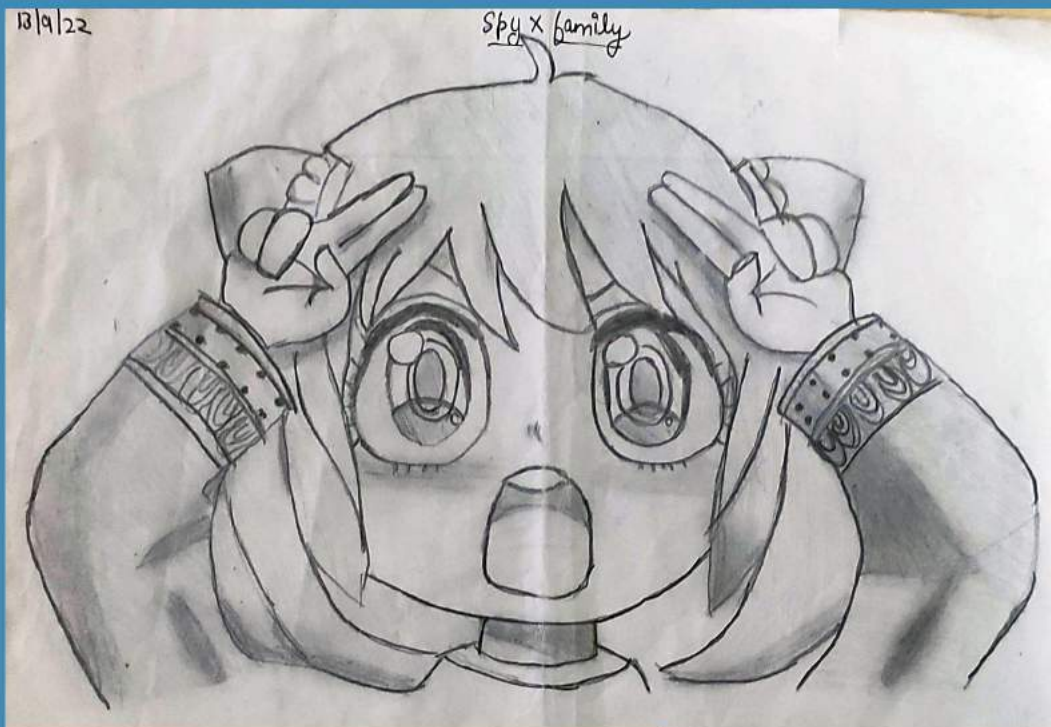

We need to save trees by protecting them from the destructive human activities like clearance of forests, deforestation for urbanization, etc. Trees are the lungs for earth. It is an important part of nature's ecosystem. They balance the soil composition and also act as the barrier for wind and storm. Thus, they provide various uses to the ecosystem. For these reasons it's imperative that we save trees.

The Pumpkin Girl and the Wild Animal

One day there lived a girl named Anna. She had a dog named Bruno. Anna always wanted to see her grandmother, but Bruno didn't let her. He used to say "Anna Don't go there. There are bad animals and they will eat you for dinner." And for this, Anna used to say, "Ok Bruno. I will go tomorrow." But the next day, the dog would say the same thing. But one day Anna told Bruno that she HAD to go, so she went. While she was heading to her grandmother's house, a fox saw her and thought "mm! What a treat." The fox came near her and told the girl that "You look good to eat." The girl replied, "I have to go to my grandmother's house. I will come tomorrow with a big belly - because now I'm so thin. You can eat me tomorrow." The fox let her go. Soon she reached her grandmother's house and then ate and slept. The next day she remembered that she promised the fox that she would come with a big belly. So, she told this to her grandmother who told her, "Take this pumpkin and hide in it. It is big enough to fit you inside." So the girl went inside, and then when she was going back home, came across the fox. The fox asked her, "Excuse me have you seen a little girl?". The pumpkin replied, "No I have not seen a girl anywhere. I am a little pumpkin walking in the forest." The fox thought, "Maybe I should wait a little longer." But the girl never came. She fooled the fox and then soon reached home. Bruno was happy she was safe and then she slept on her bed.

The story of the desert

When god first created the world, there were no deserts. The whole world was filled with fertile lands, full of beautiful gardens. God created man in order to maintain the world. He said to man, "Every time you commit a sin, there will be a peck of sand falling on the ground." Man thought, "what harm will a peck of sand cause, Let me live as I want to ". He started committing wicked sins and pecks of sand started falling on the ground, still man continued to commit sins. The effect is that there are many deserts around us today.

-Keerthana Babu C (3B)

Poem On Save Environment

Search a solution,
To stop pollution,
Make our environment,
Healthy, clean and green.
Plant more trees,
To make earth pollution free.
Let's make our earth the best,
By making pollution less and less.
We cannot live without our environment,
So, we should always,
Take care of our environment,
And never pollute our environment.
